Doc West Sets New Album And Tour

Blue Mountain Records announces the Western United States promotion tour of Doc West in support of the March 1, 2005 release of his newest CD Made In The U.S.A. on Blue Mountain Records.

Doc will be joined on the tour with blues master Lucky Lloyd as they play selections from the CD and from Doc's Rocking Records release of Feed The Fire. They will also perform a cross section of unrecorded originals and covers of great R&B and Blues songs written by Willie Dixon, Jimmy Reed, John D. Loudermilk and Elias McDaniels.

Venues will range in size from 1500 seat auditoriums down to intimate 100 seat clubs.

Doc has written, performed, recorded and toured with such greats as Stephen Stills, Bonnie Bramlett, Chicago, Buddy Guy, Lightning Hopkins, TW Henderson, Bill Chinnok, The Afternoon Delights, Rebecca Hall, Odyssey, Chuck Berry and Ike & Tina Turner.

On this tour Doc will be visiting radio and television stations, record and book stores and newspapers. Interviews are currently being scheduled.

To contact Doc to arrange a booking, interview or a visit to your store or station please go to DocWestMusic.com where you can download a venue/vendor package and send an email to the Doc West support team.
